Montreal, April 10th, 1888.

The Agents "Armbrecht's Coca Wine."

DEAR SIRS,—I have carefully analyzed the sample of "Armbrecht's Coca Wine" sent to me on the 5th ultimo. I find that the wine contains 0.0214 per cent. of Cocaine by weight; that is, each wineglassful of the wine contains 0.035 grammes, or a little more than half a grain of the Alkaloid. Armbrecht's Coca Wine may be briefly described as a very agreeable preparation, containing in each wineglassful a good tonic dose of the active principle of Erythroxylon Coca. I remain, Sirs,
Sincerely yours,

THE SAILORS CASE.

Thirteen of the Crew of the "Silverdale" Sentenced to Twelve Weeks.

The adjourned hearing of the case of the sailors charged with refusing duty on the Silverdale was brought on yesterday morning, also the case of conspiring to impede the navigation of the ship.

Prisoners' counsel applied to the court to have judgment given in the first case so that it would be pleaded in the second. This was assented to by the court.

Argument was then heard on the first case of refusing duty.

Mr. Taylor contended that the court had no jurisdiction as it was not shown the prisoners were British subjects and the offence, if any, was committed within the three mile limit of the American shore and not on the high seas, and that the acquittal of the prisoners on a former charge of refusing duty, thereby endangering the ship, was a bar to fresh proceedings; that the men had been taken to sea unwillingly in the face of their complaint to the captain that she was unseaworthy, by reason of an incompetent crew being on board and that the crew were incompetent. Counsel took a number of objections to the articles as not being in accordance with the Merchants' Shipping Act.

Mr. Davie argued that the offence was a very grave one; that the men had persistently refused to do duty, and had conspired together not to go to sea after getting their advance; that great loss would result to the ship; that the court had jurisdiction.

Prisoners' counsel commented on the course which had been taken in requesting Mr. Johnson to leave the bench on this case, saying it was an insult to him as well as to their honors, as it was done for the avowed purporse of obtaining a conviction whether according to law or not.

The court reserved judgment and on assembling at 1 o'clock sentenced the prisoners to twelve weeks in jail.

The other charge of conspiracy was then heard, and after the evidence had been taken and addresses by counsel given, the charge was dismissed against all the prisoners. Two of the fifteen were ordered back to the ship.

The crew, who are mostly boys, complain very much of their treatment by the captain. They say they were induced to sign the articles on false representations as good seamen could not be got at Port Townsend, and that when they complained to the captain of the unseaworthiness of the ship and that they wanted to settle their board bill on shore and complain to a magistrate, the answer they received was being imprisoned in the forecastle and an attempt made to starve them into submission.

MR. GARDNER REPLIES.

TO THE EDITOR:—In fairness to my many friends, the public, and myself, kindly permit me the insertion of the following in refutation of the letter signed "Chinese Merchants."

In doing so, I submit facts which cannot be gainsayed or controverted, and they are: First, that the statement in the letter in question is a base falsehood—the Yosemite did not arrive at half-past seven and nor did she for at least an hour after. Is it not a significant fact that those who try to injure me have to resort to falsehoods? Truth is so bright they are afraid to approach it! Secondly, all my duties were performed in connection with the twenty-seven Chinese—not thirty-five as your truthful correspondent aver—in an hour and a half from the time the boat docked. This is kindly referred to by you in this morning's issue; the Chinese agent of the C. P. R. has corroborated, and who is in a better position to know than he?

"Chinese Merchants"?—a very vague expression, indeed, not unlike the three tailors of Tooley street—"we, people of London." But the fact quite patent is, not so much "Chinese Merchants," but what is behind. I am reminded of what the town major very properly said in last evening's Times—something about there being or having been for a long time past, a snake, very comfortably coiled, feeding on Chinese grass. But I go further and say that when this snake is trampled upon it writhes and hisses, and emits enough poison to taint the atmosphere three miles round, so much so that it sets in motion other snakes also.

But all metaphorical language laid aside, I submit it is a fact most deplorable that a private citizen cannot bring to light certain facts which make the very angels weep, without being lied about and scandalized. But come what may—lies, plots, intimidations, persecutions, aye, even death, I shall yet be unmoved, pursuing the evil workers to the end.

JOHN E. GARDNER.

Victoria, B.C., June 8th, 1886.

THE CHINESE REPLY.

TO THE EDITOR:—We read in this evening's Times a letter signed "Snowball," the writer of which asserted that no Chinaman ever wrote the "Chinese Merchants" letter in this morning's COLONIST, because he did not see the usual "you payee, or no insertee" sign of Chinese imperfection in handling the English language. Doubtless "Snowball" has been acquainted with the fact that his friend John E. Gardner can write a letter as good in Chinese as in English. But it might be agreeable to "Snowball's" pride in his friend's linguistic accomplishments to believe that no Chinaman could write as good English as Mr. Gardiner's Chinese.

The writer of our last letter might not be a Chinaman, but the complaint against Mr. Gardner made by that letter to the public and by a deputation of Chinese to Collector Hamley was, nevertheless, affirmed by a letter from the C. P. N. office. The truth was told, and that's what the public want to know, no matter whether told by a white man, a black man, or a Chinaman.

"Snowball" believes our last letter is "an attempt at retaliation after the release of the chief officers of the Chinese Benevolent Society." There is a Chinese benevolent society in this city, but its chief officers are all respectable and leading Chinese merchants, and they have never been in jail. There was no release of them and, therefore, no retaliation from them. CHINESE MERCHANTS.

The Government Withdraw License Clauses from the Local Government Bill.

Russia Raising Another Row in Afghanistan—Henry Whyte Melville, the Reverend Bigamist—Col. King Harmon Denies that He Has Resigned.

A Reverend Bigamist.

LONDON, June 8.—Mrs. Whyte Melville, wife of Rev. Henry Whyte Melville, who last December eloped with the daughter of Capt. Dunne, has been granted a divorce on the ground that her husband is a bigamist. Melville, whose real name is Higgins, deserted his wife to marry the lady who has just secured a divorce from him. The latter was a wealthy widow, the daughter of Lord Bateman and a cousin of Lord Salisbury. Last December Melville eloped with Miss Dunne, whose father was lately governor of Castlebar jail and an ex-officer of the United States army.

Withdrawn the License Clauses.

The government, it is announced, have withdrawn the license clauses of the local government bill.

They Would Not Resign.

The Times says Prince Bismarck, in a recent audience, told the Emperor that the cabinet would not resign even if the quinquennial bill was not signed.

Denies the Statement.

Col. King Harman denies the report that he is to resign the under secretaryship of Ireland.

Didn't Like the Autograph.

The St. James' Gazette has a despatch from Berlin which says Minister Von Puttkamer has asked the Emperor's permission to resign, this decision being reached owing to the contents of an autograph letter which the minister received last evening from the Emperor.

A German Minister Resigns.

BERLIN, June 8.—The Post and National Zeitung state positively that Minister Von Puttkimer has resigned.

The Austrian Budget.

VIENNA, June 8.—The Neufreie Press says that the Austrian budget, which will be submitted to the delegations, shows an increased expenditure of 5,000,000 florins.

Rejected the Bishops' Appeal.

ROME, June 8.—The chamber of deputies rejected the petition of the Italian bishops asking that the articles in the penal code bill imposing penalties upon the clergy for abuses committed in the exercise of their functions, be eliminated.

Capital Punishment Abolished.

In the chamber of deputies to-day a motion was passed abolishing capital punishment.

An Egyptian Crisis.

CAIRO, June 8.—The Khedive has dismissed Mibar Pasha, the president of the council, the minister of foreign affairs and the minister of justice, and has summoned Riaz Pasha to form a cabinet.

The Bear Causing a Row.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 8.—The Novaye Vremya states that the measures which the Czar desires to impose upon the Ameer of Afghanistan, with a view to prevent good relations between the Affghans and Russian-Turkomans, can lead to no practical results but only to discontent among the Affghans, which will prejudice the interests of England.

Should Make Known the Policy.

The Moscow Gazette, in an editorial discussing German affairs, says "It is time that each power should clearly specify its future policy. Community interests of Russia and France are a logical sequence of a political question."

THE SPALLUMCHEEN DISTRICT.

Interesting Interview with a Resident—Capabilities of the Soil—Unequalled Flour—Prospects of the District.

C. Dubois Mason, who has for the past year or so been located at Enderby, in the Spallumcheen district, arrived in the city the other day. Desirous of learning his views of the district through which the Okanagon & Shuswap railway is to be built, a representative of this paper interviewed him on the subject with the following result.

How are the crops in your part of the country?

Until last week there was much need of rain, but we then had several days rain and the crops now look as well as anyone could wish.

How much grain have the company in hand?

I roughly estimate the wheat in hand or certain to come to the mill at about two thousand tons. There is also much more of which there is no note as some of the farmers hold back in expectation of higher prices, and others are too far away to profitably haul their wheat to the mill.

Do you consider there is sufficient wheat grown to keep the mill busy at all times?

Undoubtedly, and the mill will now be kept running night and day in order to mill the wheat in hand before the new crop is brought in.

What is the output of the mill?

Running night and day the mill produces one hundred and forty bushels of flour per day.

What is a fair return of wheat per acre?

Messrs. Lumby & Bennett and Mr. Fortune have threshed out as much as sixty bushels to the acre, but that is, of course, for small patches of two or three acres. The general average may be safely taken at from thirty to forty bushels an acre, which is a remarkably fine return.

How does the quality of the wheat compare with that of Manitoba?

The best wheat is certainly equal to the "Manitoba No. 1 hard," and the only objection, if any, is that it is so hard that it gives the miller a little extra trouble in milling. There is also a much larger proportion of first quality wheat than in Manitoba.

Do you think the wheat acreage can be extended?

Most certainly it can. This year's crop will be very considerably in excess of that of last year, as many men who last year had only forty or fifty acres in wheat have now from one hundred to two hundred acres sown. Farmers are merely waiting for the Shuswap & Okanagon railway to be built. The Dominion government now have, by order-in-council, guaranteed the subsidy and the railway will be commenced at once. The construction of the railway will give an immense stimulus to wheat raising, as there are a number of very large and fine tracts of land around Vernon and the Mission which will be put under crop as soon as ever a market has been opened up. I find many Victorians cannot even now believe that there is wheat enough to keep the mill going. I can only advise them to go and see for themselves.

How is it that the flour was scarcely seen here in the early spring?

That was because last winter we had much trouble to get it to Sicamous Narrows. The river was frozen over for many weeks and the snow was not sufficiently deep on the wagon road to afford good sleighing. The road, although a very good road and one that must prove a great boon to the country, was too new and became utterly impassible as the snow began to melt. All this will be remedied with the advent of the railway and flour will then be shipped in large quantities at all seasons of the year.

Is the extent of the district sufficient to warrant the construction of another mill?

In a year or so I think it will, but I believe the interests of the district would be better served by the extension of the operations of the present company than by the erection of an independent mill, as there would be greater economy of working, both in the handling of the mill produce and the number of hands employed.

Do you think it would be advisable to turn the business into a joint stock company?

Well, I do not consider it necessary so to do, but undoubtedly a joint stock company with a capital of from one hundred to one hundred and fifty thousand dollars and a small directorate of good business men, who would personally look after the interests of the company in all the largest cities of the province, would be able to extend the business in several ways very profitably both to the country and itself, and I think such a company might very well do all the banking business of the neighborhood, either alone or in conjunction with some bank.

How do you consider the flour takes the mark[illegible]?

In the upper country people insist upon having it, and the mill is now sending large quantities into Cariboo via Ashcroft. A number of complaints have been made from the residents in Victoria and Nanaimo that they cannot get the flour, and storekeepers do not in all cases order it as freely as they might. It would appear to be shortsighted policy, as the "Choice Patent" is quite equal to the Hungarian of Ogilvie's mills, and all the money paid to the milling company is spent in the province. In time the flour will be the only brand in our markets.

Can fruit be raised successfully?

Yes. Around the Mission fruit of all kinds can be raised in abundance and a fortnight at least in advance of any place on the coast. There are also some very fine orchards near Lansdowne and as soon as the railway furnishes the market large quantities of fine fruit and butter will be sent to the coast. At present there is no ready sale and, therefore, the production is very limited.

AMERICAN NEWS.

The Canal Question.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—In the house to-day the Dingley resolution was adopted, calling on the secretary of the treasury for information as to whether an order is now in force, by which United States vessels, passing through Canadian canals to American ports, when they make their voyage via the St. Lawrence, pay less tolls than when they make it by way of Lake Ontario, and whether further legislation is necessary to authorize the secretary to impose additional tolls upon vessels passing through the Sault Ste. Marie canal bound to Canadian ports in case Canada continues the discrimination against vessels bound to American ports.

General Sheridan's Condition.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—At 12:10 this morning the following bulletin was issued by Gen. Sheridan's physicians: "Gen. Sheridan's cough has increased somewhat since last report and this has made him restless and nervous. His pulse is rather quicker but of good strength, and his respiration is rather more frequent within the last two hours. He takes nourishment with regularity."

Gen. Sheridan's Mother Dying.

SOMERSET, Ohio, June 8.—The sick mother of Gen. Sheridan had another relapse yesterday afternoon and is now in a critical condition. The doctors express little hope of her recovery. Her son's condition has not been made known to her for fear of the result.

The Wrecked Para.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—A dispatch received at the Merchants' Exchange to-day states that the wrecked Pacific mail steamer City of Para is lying in an easy position above Panama, and the chances of getting her off are favorable.

It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. The Common School Fund.

In the assembly this afternoon Hon. Treasurer Shepyn moved resolutions respecting the arbitration between Ontario and Quebec re the common school fund. The resolutions provide three arbitrators to be appointed, a majority of whom shall decide, and that the finding of the commission shall abide. It provides that Quebec's expenses will be equally divided with Ontario. A long discussion took place, but the resolutions were finally carried.

The Pope has for the second time conferred the Golden Rose upon an American lady. The first was given to the wife of Gen. Sherman, and the second now goes to Miss Caldwell, who has rendered great service to the Roman Catholic church in America, the generous donor to the Catholic University in Washington. These are the only instances where the Golden Rose has been given to any but royal personages.

How it Works.

The mode of operating of Burdock Blood Bitters is that it works at one end the same time upon the Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Blood, to cleanse, regulate and strengthen. Hence its almost universal value in chronic complaints.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE ON REV. MR. STARR.

There was a generally expressed opinion on the streets yesterday that the remarks of Chief Justice Begbie concerning the Rev. Mr. Starr were altogether uncalled for, and objectionable in the extreme. The rev. gentleman concluded his evidence and left the court room, and it was afterwards that the presiding judge made use of the language which will be found to-day in our local columns. Whatever ground Rev. Mr. Starr may have given to irritate the Chief Justice by his languid deportment in the witness box, it certainly was not of that character which merited severe reprimand, and the language used by his lordship can only be considered worthy of one of "a vulgar turn of mind." It is but a short time since the head of the judiciary in this province went out of his way to utter an extraordinary diatribe against the local press and journalism generally. For the offence he committed on that occasion he has received just censure from the general public as well as leading journals in Canada and the United States. In the present instance his offensive comparisons were wanting in provocation, and in any event should not have been made. The public look to the bench, as well as the pulpit, for impartial and considerate treatment of all subjects brought under their notice, and as to the former it is expected that witnesses, juries and prisoners will be subjected to no indignities. But on several occasions the learned Chief Justice has permitted his temper to control his judgment; has browbeaten juries because they did not coincide with his own peculiar views, and has been grossly uncourteous and, in some cases, excessively rude to counsel, plaintiff and defendant. In this latest freak he has stepped without the pale of dignity and decency and has made a vulgar, personal attack on a witness simply because the latter's deportment in court did not happen to agree with the rule which seemed the correct one to his lordship. We cannot but regret that so exalted an official as Chief Justice Begbie should have thus transgressed, and in expressing our displeasure we but voice the sentiment of the whole community. He was a might in the land in the early history of the province in preserving order, but in the latter days—is it from advancing years and failing health?—he does not appear to exercise that common discernment between what is just, proper and decent which should be characteristic of one in his position.

THE DANGERS OF CIGARETTE SMOKING.

From time to time the newspapers of the United States contain accounts of fatal results from cigarette smoking. The victims, sometimes two or three in a week, are chiefly boys and young men. The evil arises from two or three causes. Cigarettes are usually made from a poor quality of tobacco, often the mere refuse of the tobacco factories, colored and daintily put up to make it look presentable, and often flavored with drugs more deadly than the original compound. From the opiates contained in cigarettes arises the most ineradicable of all appetites, so that it has passed into a proverb that a confirmed cigarette smoker, like the victim of the opium or morphine habit, is practically incurable. Boys smoke cigarettes because they are cheap. Too many of them acquire the habit peculiar to cigarette smoking, of inhaling the smoke—taking it directly into the lungs, thus not only doubling the deadly effect but increasing the power of the habit. It is because of the ill effects of cigarette smoking, as we view them, that we have commended the course of the Federal Government in raising the excise duty on this class of goods. But we go further, and would like to see the weed, in any form, prohibited to boys under sixteen years of age. Whatever may be said of the habit of smoking in general, and among adults, there can be no question as to its injurious effects upon boys, and especially the use of the cigarette. On the Pacific coast, where it has too wide a popularity, perhaps from climatic influences, the diseases in weakened constitutions and sluggardly minds which it sows are only too apparent. Unfortunately cigarette smoking is not strictly confined to the male sex. It has found of late an increasing number of devotees among women and girls, in both the old world and the new. The following incident we find quoted in the United States Review, a reliable journal, which illustrates some other dangers that arise in this connection—the danger from fire, and of being mulct in heavy damages as well. We quote:

"The wife of a well known citizen of the United States, who was stopping at a first class hotel in Paris, went to sleep with a cigarette which she had been smoking still lighted in her hand. A fire resulted and the furniture and other property was destroyed. There is a law or custom in France which provides that in cases of fires in hotel apartments the insurance companies shall pay the landlord, and then collect the sum paid from the tenant of the rooms if it can be shown that carelessness caused the fire. Mrs. Fenton was astonished to find a short time ago that in this case the insurance company had begun suit for 80,000 francs paid to the landlord, and that her smoking cigarettes was urged as the cause of the fire."

THE CHILD WIDOWS OF INDIA.

We learn from the latest census that that there are no fewer than 20,930,626 widows in India, of whom 382,736 were under 19 years of age, 207,388 under 14, and 28,976 under the age of 9 years. These figures present, to all who understand the position of these child widows, a fearful picture of human misery. The efforts that are being made by various philanthropic organizations in their behalf will, no doubt, alleviate the condition of many, but it would seem as if their best efforts for many years can scarcely make more than a slight impression upon the mountain of misery it is sought to remove. The poor little girls, despised, downtrodden, shunned, subject to every degree of hardship and contumely, will still by the hundred-thousand be regarded with horror by their superstitious friends and neighbors as guilty in some pre-existent state of crimes which caused the premature death of their husbands. The few who can be received into the homes which are being prepared for them will be as nothing to the many whose misery will still be beyond the reach of the means of the philanthropists. Amongst the various schemes for their deliverance none, perhaps, is more deserving of notice than that of the Pundita Ramabai, who has recently been lecturing in Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto. She proposes to strike, as far as possible, at the root of the evil, in the ignorance and superstition which begot it. Her aim is to found an institution for the education of child-widows. The members, educated from year to year, will not only be themselves raised out of a condition worse than slavery, and made capable of independent self-support, but will also become the most effective agents in the spread of intelligence and enlightenment amongst their sex. If, judging by the views of our exchanges, the Pundita is herself a fair specimen of what these Indian high-caste women are capable of becoming under the developing hand of educational culture, a few hundreds of such would soon become a power in India. The reports of the Pundita's lectures, and the opinions of those who have conversed with her, agree in ascribing to her a degree of mental acumen, and of shrewd and lofty intelligence, such as is possessed by very few of the most highly educated of her sex in Europe or America. The vein of keen but apparently unconscious sarcasm which runs through her addresses cuts like a knife through all conventional disguises and sophisms, and lays bare the very core of the abuses which she aims to expose. Her history and her talents alike stamp her as a truly wonderful woman, consecrating her life to a noble cause.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS.

THE Times continues to inform its readers that Lieutenant-Governor Dewdney has been appointed Minister of the Interior. He still continues to be Lieutenant Governor of the Northwest Territories.

THE crimes of Millman, the Prince Edward Island murderer, and his execution for it, have hardly dropped out of public recollection. His case is re-called by the news that an aunt of Millman is now declared to have seen him wash his hands at a pump near her house on the night of the murder at an hour when he claims to have been at home. This evidence did not come out at the trial and strengthens the chain of circumstantial evidence which convicted Millman, justly, as most people thought. And yet the young man met death with a lie on his lips.

A PAPER read before the London Statistical Society by Mr. Charles Booth contains much interesting information respecting the poor of London. He calculates that there are in London 50,000 loafers, 300,000 picking up only casual and scanty earnings, 250,000 in the receipt of irregular wages and 400,000 working regularly but for insufficient pay. This is the mass out of which the sweater draws his material and makes his profits. Allowing that the population of London is four millions, we have one-fourth of the population of the British metropolis either altogether idle or working for wages which are too low to supply them with the necessaries of life.

CHURCH congresses, synods and assemblies are the order of the day at present, and the speeches, proceedings and statistics show that the various branches of the church militant have a large amount of vitality left in them yet. The speech of Bishop Merrill to the Methodist conference held at New York the other day shows that since the previous conference the membership in the branch of the church he represents has increased from 1,769,534 to 2,093,935. That branch (the northern) has now 12 theological schools, 54 colleges, and 154 academies, valued at $24,000,000. $1,200,000 are annually spent on missionary work. The progress is not by any means confined to this one denomination. The Baptists have had their assembly and the figures quoted as to the progress made show an even greater proportionate increase. Other denominations are equally pushing and prosperous, and all along the line there seems to be manifested a striking degree of ardor and activity.

A ROUSING imperial federation league meeting was held at Halifax on Monday evening and addressed by Sir Adams Archibald, Archbishop O'Brien, Revs. Dr. Gordon and Partridge, W. C. Silver, president of the chamber of commerce, Judge Molton, John F. Stairs, M.P., and others. Sir John Ross, administrator of the government, and other distinguished citizens were on the platform. Archbishop O'Brien made the speech of the evening, making a brilliant attack on the repealers and annexationists. He declared himself a loyal and devoted Canadian and unmercifully lashed the traitors to our magnificent inheritance as dazed victims of hideous nightmare. He described Goldwin Smith as a prophet of pessimism and the fossilized enemy of local autonomy. It was an insult to be told annexation was our destiny. "We Canadians, with our untold resources of wealth, our unsurpassed facilities by sea and land would be the veriest cravens that ever disgraced humanity were we to fold our hands in helpless despondency and shrink from facing the national problems that confront us." His speech will be a death knell to the Secession crusade.

THE JUBILEE HOSPITAL SITE.

To the Editor:—A committe of most competent gentlemen was appointed to select a site for the Jubilee hospital. That committee after much labor made a judicious selection. The views of the V. M. A. should have been advanced long ago, when all were invited to express their opinions. I fear the V. M. A. are not good architects of earthly mansions. They would have the hospital "near the centre of population where the patients could be easily visited by them." Their argument tinges of selfishness. Would they surround the patients with dark walls and dark chimney tops? Would they subject the sick to the din, the noise, the dust, the stench, the suffocation inseparable to the centres of population? Well would it have been for the reputation of the V. M. A. as sanitarians had they not attempted to convince us of the poor drainage at the new site. Suppose the new building committee were insane enough to build near habitable dwellings, who would tolerate the drainage from the new hospital! Which of the V. M. A. would elect to live by it? Speak! Disease is rife within our city. A boy now lies dead from that dreadful scourge diphtheria, within one hundred yards of one very popular hospital. Typhoid has been traced along the line of running sewage from the Royal hospital. The V. M. A. have forgotten or ignored the divine injunction that all contagious diseases should be moved "without the camp;" and as it was in the days of the Old Testament so it is to-day. The laws of God are the laws of nature. Disregard those laws now, and as of old, the same deadly train of diseases will invariably follow. The V. M. A. may rest satisfied that the city is growing and very soon the new hospital may be but too near the centre of population. The site is an excellent one, facing the warm south, sheltered by a high ridge from our prevailing south-west cold winds. Let us make our city healthy first, then beautiful and attractive; all of which elements are sadly needed. The arguments in favor of the present site are numerous. The objections are distance, want of water and drainage. As regards distance, the directors purpose having an ambulance so that the sick can be conveyed to the new grounds in shorter time than formerly to the old, while street cars and cabs will ever tend to shorten the distance for those "friends" who wish to visit the patients. The visiting clergymen too, can be conveyed thither in shorter time to the new site than he took to tramp to the old. X.

NERVOUS FORCE.

How to Obtain It.

The loss of a firm character, or the degredation of a nation's honor, is the inevitable preclude to her destruction.

Behold the once proud fabric of a Roman empire!

An empire carrying her arts and arms into every part of the eastern continent.

Rome lost her national honor and her destruction followed.

Where are her sagas, her philosophers, and her generals? Go to their solitary tombs and enquire.

The loss of nerve power in man is the evitable preclude to physical degeneracy, paralysis, insanity and death. The first sign of physical weakness and debility usually manifests itself in a loss of nerve power and vitality.

Here is the starting point for more than half the ailments of the human race. In the days of Socrates, it was considered a mark of greatness to possess a robust physical development. In our days, females consider it a pronounced mark of beauty to look pale, white and dwarf-waisted. Many men cultivate the æsthetic by aping the "dude," and changing night into day for the purpose of developing a fashionable physique.

When a man or woman loses nerve power he or she has lost the key to health and happiness, and is on the broad highway to a life of chronic invalidism, mental derangement and the silent cemetery.

That countless thousands are now suffering from sexual enervation is everywhere apparent; it manifests itself in our homes, on the streets, in the insane asylums, and more especially in the divorce courts.

On every hand men and women with pale faces, weak, faltering steps and wretchedness depicted in every lineament of their countenances may be seen wending their way through life in silent misery, because of the loss of the grand, majestic power which controls the empire of physical development. Full, robust health, with all the nerve and brain power necessary to physical and mental development, is the highest type of manhood.

So degenerate have we become as a nation, it is almost impossible to picture a Venus or Hebe anywhere among our countrymen.

The multifarious causes which have led up to this condition we will not elaborate here; men of to-day care very little for cause. If they can grasp effect and cure at once, they are satisfied; nearly everyone can tell a sad story; of cures, there have been so few in times past a small would record them all.

For upwards of many years Drs Darrin's professional attention has been exclusively devoted to the study and investigation of these important ailments, and it is with pardonable pride that they refer to the success which they have achieved in their treatment and cure. Electro-magnetism, their method of practiee, is distinctly original, based upon rational and scientific principles, and followed by the happiest results.

Electro magnetism, applied to the debilitated system, restores nervous energy and effects permanent cures when all other remedies have failed. Electro-magnetic force is just as natural and necessary to the nerves as bread is to the stomach, and by the same law it gives new life, power and energy. To get satisfactory results we must apply nature's agent, which advanced civilization and education have declared to embody the greatest curative principles known to the scientific world.

It is one of the happy features of Drs. Darrin's practice that the application causes neither pain nor distress, and can therefore be readily administered to the most nervous person. They may safely state that patients under their professional care will receive every benefit guaranteed by science, skill and comprehensive experience.

OFFICE HOURS AND PLACE OF BUSINESS.

The Drs. Darrin are located at the International Hotel, Cherry street, Seattle, W. T. Consultation free.

Office hours, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays 10 to 12. All curable chronic diseases, blood taints, weakness in man or woman, catarrh and deafness are confidentially and successfully treated. Cures of private diseases guaranteed. Circulars sent free. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit at the doctors' office.

AT THE ONE NIGHT STANDS.

Actor W. J. Florence Gives Some of His Experiences at the Cheaper Theatres.

The one night stand is commonly made in a theatre owned and managed by some fairly successful bill poster or alderman or real estate speculator, who knows as much about a play house and the way it ought to be run as I know about the Sanskrit originals of Mr. Arnold's poems. A good many of these theatres are on upper floors above shops and offices. They are approached by flights of narrow and winding stairs, and I never go out of one without thanking my stars that there has been no fire or panic during the night. Queer things happen in these up stairs places once in a while. John McCullough was playing "Hamlet" in a theatre of this sort some years ago. Just beneath the stage was a furnace, attached to a bakery or something of that kind, I believe, and when the trap was opened for the grave digger to get in, a gush of hot air came up that was stifling. The curtain went up, and you can wager that the grave digger made lively time getting that pit ready for Ophelia. The sweat poured from the poor man in streams, and he piped his little song and whistled his little speech and got out of there with a jump. When the queen came to scatter flowers on Ophelia's coffin the hot air caught them up and wafted them into the flies, for they were made of tissue paper. The curtain cut off that scene with a roar from the audience.

In these cheaper theatres the manager does not attend to business, but lets the house "run itself," and whatever you need in the way of properties you must beg, borrow, or buy, for he cannot be looked to, or, at least, relied on, to furnish a sofa, a fire screen, or a pitcher of water. The only time that he is punctual is when the business man is counting up receipts. The "stage" in these theatres is usually small, the scenery bad, the picked up orchestra set your teeth on edge, the programmes are cheaply printed and full of errors; lighting, heating, ventilation and cleaning are subjects that the proprietor has not brought himself to consider, and you begin your night's work under most discouraging circumstances. You change your clothes in a perfect sty of a dressing room, with cold air whistling through partitions of unpainted boards; you wash in a battered tin basin; you "make up" with a light on only one side of your face, and there is no lock on your door. Then you go to your hotel—and there's another precious circumstance.

Hotel life in cities, as a rule, is not bad, especially if you have your pick of rooms and name your hours for meals, but you should see some of the hotels out west, and, worse still, down south. To all appearances they are comfortable and clean, and a glimpse of the dining room, with white cloths and porcelain and black waiters in place, is like a promise of merry sunshine; but wait until your dinner comes—hog, hominy, hog, water, hog, dry bread, then more hog. Everything swims in pork fat, and the cook throws in sand and cinders by way of seasoning. A troupe that struck a town in Georgia one day when the regular dinner was over could not get a blessed thing to eat but bacon—no eggs, vegetables, bread, butter, coffee, milk or tea—just fried bacon. The star of the troupe glared over the table and went away, followed by the rest, and bought some crackers in a grocery.

Then there are the hours. You get through your play at 11, go to your hotel, rise at 4 or 5 to catch a train for your next stand, get there at noon, have something to eat, skirmish around for properties, perhaps rehearse, eat your dinner, go to the theatre and act and often have to take your next train directly after the performance. But there —from these grumblings one might fancy an actor's life to be all shadow and no sunshine. I have not dwelt on the pleasures of the life because they are more apparent, and everybody knows them—the kindly appreciation of the public, the good words one has from press and people, the odd and interesting sights and adventures one meets in traveling, the information that even the dullest picks up when he knocks around the world for some years, the friends one makes and the intervals of ease and comfort that come when an actor has established his reputation and his play has become popular. An actor's life, like most men's lives, has more pleasure than pain it.—W. J. Florence in New York World.

Blacks of the West Indies.

On the road we met barefooted darkeys, plodding steadily along, who gladly returned our salutations, and turned to stare at us as long as we were in sight. They carried everything with which they were encumbered on their heads—cocoanuts, jugs, coffee pots, cups, bottles—all as securely balanced as if those articles were a part of the anatomy of their bearer.

The children, mere pickaninnies, toddled along with cans and calabashes of molasses, yams, bananas, oranges, or what not, as firmly fixed on their crania as if they had been wens. A Martinique boy will stow away as many personal effects on the top of his head as a Yankee boy will find room for in the pockets of his trowsers.

We saw one youngster with a large grass mat, several feet in diameter, which he wore as jauntily as a chip hat. From a distance he looked for all the world like an animated mushroom out for a stroll—an object, by the way, we should not have been at all surprised to fall in with during our travels in this land of sensitive plants, and ferns as tall as full grown cherry trees.—Down the Islands.

Not Ready for That.

A Mrs. Blank was spending the summer in the country, and was very anxious to catch a certain train. As that event seemed, from the leisurely gait of the horse, extremely uncertain, she urged the country driver to make the beast go faster. The coachman plied whip and reins with no apparent effect, while the lady alternately examined her watch and encouraged the driver. At last, however, her patience became completely exhausted, and, espying a place in the tough hide of the stolid brute where the harness had chafed, she cried out vehemently: "Hit him on the raw, Mr. Casseboom! Hit him on the raw!" "Ma'am," responded Mr. Casseboom, with unmoved gravity, "I'm a savin' the raw till we come to the hill."—Boston Courier.

WHO IS YOUR BEST FRIEND?

Your stomach of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less. If your food ferments and does not digest right,—if you are troubled with Heartburn, Dizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, Biliousness, Indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.

Perfect Health

Can only be attained by carefully attending to the laws of nature as expressed in the wants of the system. To do this successfully requires the use of Burdock Blood Bitters occasionally, to secure the regulating and strengthening effect of this splendid medicine. tu-th-sat-dw

MISCELLANEOUS.

SORE FROM KNEE to ANKLE

Skin entirely gone. Flesh a mass of disease. Leg diminished one-third in size. Condition hopeless. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies.

For three years I was almost crippled with an awful sore leg from my knee down to my ankle; the skin was entirely gone, and the flesh was one mass of disease. Some physicians pronounced it incurable. It had diminished about one-third the size of the other, and I was in a hopeless condition. After trying all kinds of remedies and spending hundreds of dollars, from which I got no relief whatever, I was persuaded to try your Cuticura Remedies, and the result was as follows: After three days I noticed a decided change for the better, and at the end of two months I was completely cured. My flesh was purified and the bone (which had been exposed for over a year) got sound. The flesh began to grow, and to-day, and for nearly two years past, my leg is as well as ever it was, sound in every respect, and not a sign of the disease to be seen.

Have had the best of physicians and spent hundreds of dollars, but got no relief until I used the Cuticura Remedies, which have cured me, and left my skin as clear and my blood as pure as a child's.

The Pic-Nic To-Day.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church picnic to-day to Langford Plains. A special train will leave the depot at 10 o'clock, returning at 7. Parties who desire can run out on the afternoon train at 3 o'clock. Fare, 75 cents for the round trip; children not attending the school, 50 cents.

The Late Suicide at Beaver.

The young man who committed suicide at Beaver, B.C., a few days ago was named "Harvey" Jackson, not Henry Jackson as incorrectly stated at the time. Harvey Jackson came to the vicinity of Donald in the spring of 1886, from the mounted infantry school, Winnipeg. He worked in the C. P. R. shops during the last few weeks. He was never in Victoria.

The Pitt Meadows.

Mr. Edward Mohun, C.E., left Vancouver, Wednesday, for Port Hammond, whence he will proceed to Pitt Meadows to carry out his scheme of reclamation. This extensive tract of land contains about 17,000 acres and is the largest still unoccupied in the valley of the Lower Fraser river. They are intersected by the Pitt river, 1800 feet wide and about 25 feet deep, and are crosssd at the lower end by the main line of the C.P.R.

The Caledonian Picnic.

The St. Andrews and Caledodian society will hold their annual picnic in the new grounds purchased by them near Beacon Hill. It is intended by the management to make the event this year more successful than any that has taken place under their auspices. The grounds are now being placed in shape, and a permanent pavilion will be erected for dancing. Our Scotch friends when they determine to do a thing well generally succeed.

Arrival of the Jambaas.

The Ger. bark Jambaas, Abken, 145 days from Liverpool, arrived yesterday morning. She is consigned to Welch, Rithet & Co., and carries 1,414 tons of general cargo. She is drawing twenty feet of water and will discharge a considerable portion of her cargo at the outer wharf before entering the harbor. On the voyage a heavy storm was encountered and several of the knees of the vessel damaged, the captain being compelled to throw overboard 360 boxes of tinplate and 356 tubes.

The Richmond Loan.

The tenders for the Richmond loan of $15,000 were as follows: Robert Ward & Co., Victoria, 90 per cent.; R. G. Tatlow & Co., Vancouver, 97 per cent.; J.B. Fisher, Bank of B. C., Westminster, 98¾ per cent.; W. C. Ward, Victoria, for Roscoe Grenfell, London, England, 100⅛ per cent. The council are inclined to accept the latter tender, but have appointed a committee composed of Councillors Youdall and C. D. Sweet, C.M.C., to make some further negotiations as to times when payments may be made, etc., before finally closing the sale of the debentures. On motion the board of works was instructed to call for tenders and put a large amount of roadwork under contract at as early a date as possible.

A Bawdy House Raided.

Last night about 11:30 o'clock Sergeant Sheppard, in company with Officers Lavin and Lindsay, raided a house of ill-fame at No. 10, Broad street, kept by a woman named Kate Marbles, on a warrant sworn out before Mr. T. Shotbolt, charging the woman with inveigling a girl named Lizzie Rogers into the house for immoral purposes. The officers arrested the mistress, Lizzie Rogers, and three other women, and locked them up for the night and they will appear before Judge Richards this morning, although the girl claims that she went into the house of her own accord. She has been engaged as a servant in several families since her arrival from Liverpool nine months ago, and was recently employed at the Commercial hotel as a waitress. She is a good looking girl, about 20 years of age, and her conversation is in striking contrast with her more fallen companions, one of whom remarked on the way to the cells "This puts me in mind of old times in New York when they used to march us eighteen deep to prison."

The "Times" and Blackmail.

That insufferably ridiculous sheet, the Times, was again the laughing stock of those who read its "leading article" on "Some Blackmail" last evening. We are driven to the opinion that our contemporary is growing daft—there can be no other solution to his silly journalistic conduct of late. As well might we accuse the Times of blackmail in publishing the letter of "Observer" last evening, objecting, as he puts it, to turning the Methodist Church into a concert hall as he imputes such sordid and lawless motives to us because of inserting in our columns a communication from the "Chinese Merchants." The one was calculated to shock the feelings of many believers in religion, while the other touched on a matter of vital importance, if true. We may add that the uncharitable insinuation of "Snowball," (whose identity is disclosed by the malice which permeates his nasty little letter) that "Messrs. Hunter and Bloomfield saw it before it was published," as well as "the tall lawyers' clerk," is quite in keeping with the small mind of the writer. None of these gentlemen either inspired it or saw it before it appeared in print. It was written by a Chinaman as representative of the large majority of the respectable Chinese merchants, as is also the one which appears this morning.

La Belle Russe.

Last evening a large and appreciative audience greeted Jeffries Lewis and her company at The Victoria in "La Belle Russe." Miss Lewis assumed the role of Geraldine (La Belle Russe) and she never showed her talents to more advantage. From the first to the last act, she commanded rapt attention, and her display of real dramatic and emotional powers was simply wonderful. One of the good points in the lady's acting is that she never goes beyond herself. She has perfect control of her voice and her every movement is made in such a manner as to show that she knows what she is about. A true actress is Miss Lewis, and her audience last night went away more than pleased. Mr. Harry Mainhall, as Capt. Dudley Brand, ably supported Miss Lewis, and Jno. W. Thompson, a noted American actor, assumed the character of Sir Philip Calthorpe. Miss D. Rossmore, as Lady Calthorpe, gave an excellent rendition of the character, and Little Nina, as Little Beatrice, was frequently applauded. Mr. E. Collins took the part of Monroe Quilton and was decidedly funny, causing at times much merriment. This afternoon the play of "Forget Me Not" will be given, at the matinee, by special request. It is a powerful drama, full of strong situations and gives full scope to the talents of Miss Lewis and her excellent company. For to-night's performance Miss Lewis will give her lastest success, "Clothilde." Seats can be secured at M. W. Waitt & Co.'s.

Police Court Notes.

J. W. Miller, charged on remand with assault, was bound over to keep the peace.

A grocery man was fined $5 for fast driving over Rock Bay bridge.

J. Hairs, charged with being drunk and disorderly, contributed the regulation sum.

Hugo Jackmann, alias Oscar Bach, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six months imprisonment. Of the money found on him $27 was retained for wages due, and Steitz Bros received back $93.

John Williams, charged with stealing $82 from John Carlton, was remanded.

From San Francisco.

The steamer Umatilla, which left San Francisco yesterday morning, carries the following passengers for Victoria: Judge Gray, wife and two daughters, Mrs Smith, Miss N Broderick, Miss E G Bushby, D McGinty, J Best, W C Hargrave, J McBean, H A Hargrave, H H Cameron, A Randall, Mrs Dr Lightcap, J Williams, Mrs J Dwyer and daughter, Miss D McIntosh, Miss Howard, A Jones, Miss F Preston, Miss Adams, C S Smith and two daughters, M Barrett, Mrs L Layzell, T Nast, Miss McLeod, Mrs Weeks, J Richardson, wife and child, J Miller, T G Cushman, Miss Burkell and sister, R Shultz.

THE COUNTY COURT INCIDENT.

Full Particulars Concerning the Affair—The Chief Justice "Riled."

Desirous of securing a correct report of the chief justice's remarks directed against Rev. Mr. Starr in the county court case on Thursday, a couple of legal gentlemen present at the time and others were asked the full text of the occurrence. It appears from the evidence of these gentlemen that Rev. Mr. Starr when he took the witness stand, lounged in the box, and the Chief said:

"Young man, will you please lounge on the other side?"

The witness lazily changed his position to a similar one at the opposite side. This he preserved until a few questions had been asked and answered, when he again returned to his former position.

The court then said "Messenger, will you give the witness a chair, he does not seem able to stand up."

Rev. Mr. Starr replied that he was quite comfortable and straightened himself up.

His evidence was then taken, and the rev. gentleman left the court room.

At another period of the case his lordship, referring to Mr. Starr, said that he seemed to have no more backbone than a sausage skin filled with water, and was as limp as a wet shirt collar.

In summing up the case the court referred in complimentary terms to Mr. Gardner's conduct in aiding the young lady in securing the position and in his other acts of kindness toward her.

His lordship's references to Mr. Starr were substantially as above, as can be readily demonstrated by several witnesses. The unpleasant details of the incident would not now be repeated if, in the interview had by a Times reporter with the reverend gentleman, there is an evident desire to question the correctness of the statement in yesterday's COLONIST.

A REPULSIVE CRIME.

Michael Connor Arrested Last Night—A Serious Charge.

It is our duty to chronicle an outrage which has been perpetrated, one of the worst cases ever known in this community. Several days ago the authorities were informed that a man named Michael Connor, a barber by trade and who but recently arrived here, was carrying on a system of enticing small boys into his room and there endeavoring to outrage them. Officer Lavin was detailed to look the matter up and with the persistency worthy of a professional detective, he hunted his man, watching his every movement. He at last secured enough evidence to justify him in arresting Connor, and yesterday afternoon a warrant was sworn out before Mr. T. Shotbolt, J.P., and in company with special constable Lindsay, Officer Lavin had his man in the toils before nine o'clock last evening. A small boy who is said to have been a victim of Connor's unnatural desires, was also arrested on the arrival of a steamer where he is employed.

The charge laid against Connor is repulsive in its nature. He has been on a spree for several days, and is said to be a bad man otherwise. He is known as "Red-handed Mike" among certain classes, for the reason, report says, that he once killed a man. Other lads who have also been enticed into his room are being looked for, and it is thought by the police that they will be able to present a strong case against the man. Officer Lavin deserves praise for the manner in which he has handled the case.

MINING ON THE HORSEFLY.

Mr. Thaddeus Harper Expects to Take Out Half a Million Dollars Before New Year.

Mr. Thaddeus Harper was at his placer mine on the Horsefly river ten days ago, and stated yesterday that he would undoubtedly take out $500,000 before the new year arrived. About seventy-five men are at work on the claim, and when high water subsides it is expected that gold will be taken out by the bucketful. The scheme is that of mining the bed of the Horsefly river, a strong wing-dam having been built for the purpose of turning the stream. Up to date the dam had held good against the water, although unusual thaws had swelled the river to a very fierce stream. A large pump is placed below the dam to keep the seepage water from the bed, and is driven by a steel cable attached to the power which drives the saw-mill on the bench above.

Mr. Harper thoroughly prospected the river bed before beginning the extensive work now accomplished, and considers the securing of an immense amount of gold beyond peradventure.

PAINE-PETERSON RACE.

The Event to Take Place on the 23d June—The Articles of Agreement—Stakes $2,000—$150 for Peterson's Expenses.

The coming race between W. H. Paine and Henry Peterson will be the most important aquatic event that has occurred in the waters of British Columbia. The course over which the race will be rowed has not been definitely decided upon, but it is trusted that sufficient inducement will be held out to have it occur at Shawnigan lake. The proprietors of Harrison Hot Springs are making efforts to secure it being rowed on Harrison lake. The following articles of agreement will be read with profit by our readers who take an interest in rowing matters:

Articles of agreement between H. Peterson, of San Francisco, Cal., and W. H. Paine, of Victoria, B. C., dated May 10th, 1888.

The said parties agree to row a single scull racing match for the distance of three miles with one turn.

The race to be rowed in a course mutually agreed upon by the parties ten days prior to the match.

The stake for the said race to be $2,150, deposited in the following manner: $1,150 to be deposited by the said Paine, and $1,000 by the said Peterson. The manner of said deposits is as follows: Said Paine to deposit $650 when he signs this agreement, and Peterson to deposit $500 at the time of his signature. Each party to deposit the remaining $500 ten days before the date of the race. Either party failing to comply with the above shall forfeit all claim to monies already deposited.

The entire stake and seventy-five per cent. of the gate receipts to be paid to the winner as declared by the referee, the remaining twenty-five per cent. of the gate receipts to be paid to the other contestant.

All stakes shall be held by the stake-holder, Mr. James Longhurst.

Said race to take place in best and best boats on the 23rd day of June, 1888, between the hours of 3:30 and 6 p.m.

The result of the race to be declared by a referee, to be selected five days prior to the date of race. The referee shall be the sole judge of all matters pertaining to the race and his decision shall be final. Either party refusing to follow his direction or obey his decision shall forfeit all claim to the stake money.

The race to be rowed in smooth water, the referee to decide what is smooth water. The signal for starting to be mutually agreed upon hereafter, that is "Are you ready. Go."

Provided the water is rough the referee has the power to extend the race from day to day.

Each man shall turn his own stake-boat from port to starboard. Stake-boats to be anchored forty yards. No coaching or interfering by outside parties shall be permitted.

Each contestant shall have a judge at the start and at the stake-boat.

The conditions of this race otherwise than as stated above to be governed by the rules of the National Amateur Rowing Association.

JOHN MUIRHEAD,
W. H. PAINE,

CRICKET.

St. Paul's School vs. H. M. S. Wild Swan.

On Thursday afternoon, at the Canteen grounds, Esquimalt, St. Paul's school avenged their four-wicket defeat of ten days before by a victory over H. M. S. Wild Swan, on the first innings by a majority of 48 runs. The captain very properly led the way with two capital scores, in neither of which did he give a direct chance, and Mr. Campbell also came off in each innings, with one life in the first. The pair of dominies scored rapidly, putting on 45 and 58 runs, in each case, for the first wicket. Fisher, V. Innes, and George Ward all came in for a little luck during their stay at the wicket; Innes profiting by a "lost ball," and Ward having several "lives" in his "not out" contributions, in which, nevertheless, he showed capital form. For the Wild Swan Hirst and C. B. Robinson made a very good stand, and Lieut. Sutton put together his fifteen with but one single. Of the bowlers, Campbell had 5 wickets for 20 runs, McLeod, 2 for 14, Miller 2 for 0, while G. Robinson headed the losers in this department, with 10 wickets at a cost of 51 runs. The seventy "byes" scored in the game were due rather to the state of the ground and the pace of the bowling than to any want of efficiency at long stop. Mention should be made of excellent catches by Butt and F. Ward. Each side having now won a game, the "conqueror" is expected with much interest. It will probably come off next week.

A COWARDLY SLANDER.

A Late Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Anonymously Charged with a Serious Offence.

Mr. J. J. Daley, for three years the secretary of the Y.M.C.A. of this city, arrived in Victoria the other day to contradict a slander that had been circulated in reference to him while in that position, and which was started in Victoria. To all who were acquainted with Mr. Daley during his sojourn in Victoria the news that he had been accused anonymously of misappropriating the funds of the Y. M. C. A. to the extent of several hundred dollars, will be received with surprise and indignation. During his connection with the association, which has never been in a flourishing financial condition, he labored indefatigably in its interests, and prior to his resignation his salary had been unpaid for eight months. The first news he received of the circulation of the report was from Rev. C. D. Davis, of Seattle, who was told by the itinerant Wad-El-Ward that he was given to understand by a former officer of the association that Mr. Daley was short in his accounts to the amount of $735, and had absconded. Mr. Davis, knowing Mr. Daley, denied the statement in toto and warned his informant not to repeat it. The latter, however, stoutly averred he had been so informed in Victoria. About three months ago an anonymous letter was received by Mr. Williams, of The Dalles, a member of the association there, of which Mr. Daley was the secretary. This letter bore the postmark of Victoria, and stated that Mr. Daley was an embezzler and warned the association against him. It was shown to Mr. Daley, who indignantly denied the accusation, and after due consideration resigned the first of the present month for the purpose of coming to Victoria, in order that he might investigate the matter, and, if possible, trace his slanderers and bring them to justice. All past and present officers of the Y.M.C.A. in this city deny having made any statement to the above effect, and say that there is nothing in the matter—it is simply an idle tale. However, it is a very serious matter to Mr. Daley, and through a published card he requests that an investigation be held, so that he may be cleared of the vile charge that has been made against him in so cowardly a manner.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Blue Ribbon Club are going to have a magic lantern entertainment this evening.

One of the woman arrested last night in No. 10 Broad street, was liberated, she being enciente and hysterical.

Mr. Duncan Robinson, of Fernycombe, near Agassiz Station, was wedded to Miss Annie McEwen, of Kenyon, Ont., at Vancouver on Thursday.

At 2 p. m. to-day at Beacon Hill a match game of cricket will be played between St. Paul's School eleven and Mr. B. H. T. Drake's eleven.

Two sailors, invalided home, one from the Cormorant and the other from the Caroline, left on Wednesday. At Vancouver they created quite a sensation.

Three men who were in the house of ill-fame on Broad street when it was raided by the police, escaped in very scanty attire. Why were they not also arrested?

Two of the Chinese who arrived on the Zambezi from Hong Kong and who were refused a landing here and returned, escaped before the steamship sailed from Vancouver for San Francisco, and are now at large.

Some individuals have been sending Mr. W. Chudley, honorary secretary of the Jubilee Hospital, anonymous letters on the site question. Mr. Chudley says life is too short to bother with such contemptible people—they have a rafter in their eye.

On Wednesday evening Ald. Elliott's son, who was out riding at Vancouver, met with a severe accident. The horse he was riding had not been properly broken, and rearing it fell over backwards, crushing the rider underneath. His injuries are not considered fatal.

At the residence of ex-Mayor McLean at Vancouver, Thursday morning, Mr. Duncan Kennedy and Miss Jessie Campbell, of Chilliwhack, were married by Rev. G. C. Patterson, M. A., assisted by Rev. T. G. Thompson and Rev. R. G. Thompson, P. D.
